David MacLaughlin has a diverse background experience and before moving to Batemans Bay twenty years ago, he owned four IGA and Local Liquor Stores in the south of Canberra. David knows about tourism and hospitality in the Bay, having owned Lincoln Downs Resort and the Quai Motel. However, it was in his role as the President of Batemans Bay Business and Tourism Chamber that he spoke to us on Thursday evening. We all appreciate the difficulties in running a small business in the Bay and we see the many empty premises and shops in the centre of town. There does not seem to be any quick fix, with increasing unemployment and young people moving away from the area. There has been a growth in housing but many live elsewhere and do not contribute to the economy here. The main issue is in attracting investment into the Shire. We have so much going for us here that we do not take advantage of, a clean river, beautiful beaches and esplanade. David does not believe that the Mackay Centre will be large enough, holding only 350, and to attract new business and investment we have to aim higher. Rotarian John Harper thanked him for an interesting and thought provoking talk.
