Four Way Test of the things we think, say or do:

Breaking the Ice – Gordian Fulde, who heads Emergency Medicine at St Vincent's Hospital was the keynote speaker on Monday evening at the Drug and Alcohol Forum in Moruya. We also heard from a psychologist, a paramedic and two mothers, whose lives have been changed forever owing to a drug addicted child. The event was well attended by health professionals and the public and we were all left in no doubt that the Eurobodalla does have a major drug problem.
