The weather was cold and wet with even some hail in parts of the Bay, but it was a warm and friendly meeting on Thursday evening. Our fun member Jen North was paying a flying visit from Melbourne and it was good to see her looking well and happy. Whilst Pres. Alan was sunning himself in Fiji, Jeff Thorpe chaired the meeting. Peter Wood introduced our entertaining Guest Speaker, Margaret Crothers, who is the Senior Rights Advocate for the South Coast. Margaret provided valuable information we require in our senior years whilst entertaining us with stories such as the old man in the Nursing Home who was complaining that they had stopped him having a beer. Apparently it was being brewed in the Men's Shed and he was sampling the beer from 10am! Margaret emphasised the need to have Power of Attorney and end of life wishes clear whilst we have full capability. The Senior Rights Service provides Legal, (Solicitors are funded by Fair Trading) Advocacy and Education to the over 60's.
