Is it the TRUTH?

Is it FAIR to all concerned?

VERE'S VERITAS

DG MONICA GARRETT'S OFFICIAL VISIT

Together with DG Monica we welcomed AG Bob Antill from Narooma and Merinda who brought Radar, their Exchange Student from Taiwan. It was good to have Taryn join us as well as Colleen Connell – her husband was a charter member of our club.

It's pleasing to know, from DG Monica's address that we are on track with lots of our activities. She also gave us food for thought. Our cheque for $100 to the Childrens Emergency Medical Fund financially helps families of sick children, particularly in unexpected circumstances. It is administered by or for the District Governor, through whom go the requests for assistance.

WORKING WITH CHILDREN CHECK

A reminder to everyone, if you haven't completed your Working with Children Check yet, please do so as soon as possible. Here's the link to get you started. See also my email sent on 15 October which includes details of what to do.

PROSPECTIVE NEW MEMBERS

I am pleased to let you know that we have three applications for Membership. They are from Nicole McDonald (Taryn's mum, who works in Real Estate Accounts/Admin), from George Browning, former Anglican Bishop of Canberra/Goulburn, currently very involved in Landcare at Long Beach as well as other academic interests, and from Jenny Lockyer who works at The Glen Aged Care facility. All are keen to join and contribute. As per our club requirements, if you have any comments about any of these applicants, please let me know - by 22 October. If no objections are received we will proceed to their induction.

INTERNATIONAL TOAST – Alan Russell

Rotary Club of Cashmere (2015) was founded 40 years ago as the Rotary Club of Christchurch West. The Club is part of District 9970 which covers the top half of the South Island in New Zealand. The club has 47 members and meets on a Wednesday evening. This Club is where Alan Russell's father was a Charter member and later President. The 2015-2016 President Geoff Miller is married to Alan's cousin, and the Treasurer was in the same High School class!
