It was great to have a Social Evening on Thursday and a good laugh at the jokes or perhaps we were just laughing at David Ashford just telling his joke!

We could not believe the response we had at the Travel Expo at the Soldiers Club on Saturday! We sold $1,000 of the Rotary Christmas Race Day raffle tickets. Everyone was very generous and were happy to know that proceeds were going to Muddy Puddles. Thank you to Chris, Pam, Vere and Garry.

We are looking for raffle ticket sellers at the Extra Market on 30th September. If you can help even for a short time please contact David A. Don't forget this is a great way to sell your book of tickets!

FOR THE DIARY

We don't know what talents we have in our Rotary Family! Can you guess what the beautiful Wedding Dress (pictured left) is made of? The discarded plastic tablecloths from our ABBA & Casserole Night! The gravy and red wine stains were wiped off and look what Gay Kable created! Gay recently won first prize for her window decoration at the Vinnies store in Orient St. The Wedding Dress is now on show there.

Bruce Clarke and Ivan Ryrie were happy sausage sizzling at the Hanging Rock Skate Park on Sunday.

Time marches on and it is only two months to our AGM. Please give some thought to nominations for the 2019-2020 Board. It is easy to stick our heads in the sand but without Board Members our wonderful Rotary Club would not exist. Please see Pam for Nomination Forms.
