Accommodation and meals are included
for the duration of the program.

PROGRAM OBJECTIVES

The program is designed to:

- Build on the existing leadership potential of participants
- Encourage participants to continue to develop their own skills, talents and abilities after the program
- Remind participants of their responsibilities to their communities and the world

PROGRAM OUTLINE

Topics covered in recent RYLAs include:

Fundamentals and Concepts of Leadership, Leaders of our Time, Expectations of Leaders, Mental Health, Personal Leadership Styles, Conflict Resolution, Values Exercises, Cultural Differences – Indigenous and Refugee Leadership, Rotary Programmes, Disaster Relief, Animal Ethics, Climate Change, Situational Leadership - Military, Corporate, Political and Public Sector, Sport, Generational.

MENTORS & SYNDICATE GROUPS

Attendees are placed into small syndicate groups for ongoing reflection sessions to explore the lessons learned throughout the programme.

Group Facilitators ('Mentors') are young leaders who have recently completed RYLA.

Current RYLA participants are encouraged to apply to be mentors on future RYLA programmes.

PRESENTERS

Each year the RYLA programme is unique – the participants make for a successful RYLA and the presenters and speakers offer different perspectives.

Presenters come from all walks of life –

- Rotary and Community Sector Organisations
- Corporate and Public Service Leaders
- Sportspeople
- Indigenous Leaders, Advocates and Refugees

And there is always an entertaining and informative Guest Speaker at the formal dinner.
